Sample checklist: what runs on its own, what stays manual

The behind-the-scenes list for one kind of trip. Made-up 7-night cruise.

Part of a Set it up build. This is the task list that keeps one kind of trip on track. Each task shows up on its due date, so nothing depends on memory. Shown here for a made-up 7-night cruise.

When	Task	Who
Day of deposit	Record the confirmation number in the CRM, the itinerary, and the trip tracker. All 3 places.	Assistant
Day of deposit	Send the welcome email and the traveler form.	Advisor approves
1-2 days after deposit	Send the travel insurance quote.	Assistant drafts, advisor sends
Within 3 days of deposit	Claim the booking in the cruise line's agent portal.	Assistant
When the form comes back	Check passports: valid 6 months after the trip. If not, tell the advisor today.	Assistant
1 week after deposit	Form still not back? Send a friendly nudge.	Runs itself
14 days before final payment	Final payment reminder goes out.	Runs itself
When check-in opens	Online check-in reminder goes out.	Runs itself
When excursions open	Send shore excursion ideas.	Advisor approves
45 days before travel	Start the itinerary build.	Assistant
4 weeks before travel	Itinerary done and checked. Send to the advisor for review.	Assistant
2-3 weeks before travel	Send the itinerary and travel documents.	Advisor approves
1 week before arrival	Reconfirm the pre-cruise hotel.	Assistant
1 week before travel	Know-before-you-go email goes out.	Advisor approves
2 days after they're home	Welcome-home email.	Advisor approves
1-2 weeks after	Thank-you note and referral ask.	Advisor approves

The main rule: a step is not done until it is recorded in every place it belongs. An email is not a record.
